HAYTI SCHOOL NOTES.

By the Superintendent.

There will be no school next week on account of Christmas holidays. We hope to see every pupil back with us on Monday, Dec. 30th.

Most all the lady teachers will be out of town during Christmas holidays. Miss Mize goes to visit home folks at Puxico; Miss Smith, home folks at Kennett; Miss Winters, home folks at Lutesville; Miss Wright, home folks at Cape Girardeau; Miss Welborn, home folks Cape Girardeau and relatives at Dexter and Essex; Miss Hill will entertain her sister, Miss Ruth, who is teaching in Dunklin county; Miss McFarland will visit her friend, Miss Belle Lauman at St. Louis; Mr. Johnson and family will visit relatives in Essex.

A short Christmas program will be rendered by the children

WHOSE OX IS GORED?

Judging from what the editor of the Argus publishes in his paper he must have been close on the inside of the workings of the grand jury during the past term of circuit court. He speaks with such familiarity with what the body did and what it didn't "did." Well, we thought the acts of the grand jury were held secret and inviolable, the same as applies to election judges. Now, the editor of the Argus is kicking like a bay steer with a tin can tied to its tail because he imagines some of the election judges let leak the way he voted in the recent election. Of that we know nothing, but it would be a mighty poor prophet who couldn't guess how he did vote, if actions count for anything. But going back further. Once upon a time, not so many moons in the rear, the editor of the Argus, himself, was hauled up before the grand jury. He claimed, in his paper enough, if true, to put about half of the frisky people of Pemiscot county on a jaunt for tall timber, but when he faced the jury he didn't know "nothing" and not much of that. The spectacle he made of himself got out some way, and the editor of the Argus roared loud and long about the grand jury giving its secrets out. If it's on him, or against him, it must be quiet, but if it's on the other fellow, scatter it far and wide and he joins in the scattering. Strange fellow, this is—almost as funny as a circus clown, if you take the trouble to watch him a little.

J. V. Pollock has bought the Harry Schilling lots, in the Kohn addition, and will soon begin the erection of a new home.

A few nights ago a thief broke into Berry Wilson's room and stole his violin, and this week sent it back to him, by express, from Big Creek, Ark.

The teachers extend their sincerest thanks to the patrons of the school for co-operation thus far in the term. We wish each a very pleasant Christmas.

A POUND OF FLESH.

There is something radically wrong with the man or set of men who, by the expenditure of a mere pittance, would take advantage of a technicality in a land title to appropriate to his private use or personal aggrandizement a public square on, erected by the public in good faith, in the heart of a thriving little city of his own beloved county and state, and among the people with whom he dwells. This subject naturally leads the mind to a contemplation of the revolting character of the Hebrew who demanded his pound of flesh. He did not get it, but that did not cure matters.

Christmas Goods.

There is absolutely no reason why anyone cannot find anything they want in the Christmas goods line right here in Hayti.

Many of our stores are loaded down with Christmas goods, and in our judgment, anything from the smallest toy to the finest piece of jewelry, china or cut glass can be found right here at home.

Before you buy your Christmas goods, come to Hayti and take a look. We are sure your every want can be supplied right here at home. But don't wait too long. People are buying right now and having the goods put away for them. Any merchant will wrap your goods and put them away until you call for them.

It is a good idea to come early and make your selection, before the stocks are picked over. Come and get the best—get what you want, and do not wait until everybody else has picked over the stocks.

Buy your Christmas goods at Hayti and spend your money at home, where it will do home people some good.

Mack Stubblefield yesterday filed his bond as sheriff-elect, with the following as sureties: James R. Moore, R. F. Coppage, Lee W. Rood, J. M. Glascock, J. C. Lonon, Charles A. Tistadt, J. O. Tinsley, J. A. Medlin and J. W. McClanahan.—Caruthersville Republican.

Well, simply because Marshal Dewey is a kinsman of the editor is not the reason we sometimes mention the treatment with which he meets at the hands of some of our town people. If he was not a kinsman we might say even more. Of all the city officials, the marshal has the brunt to bear. He stands between every other city official and the real seat of action, and he must bear the brunt. With us, it is simply a matter of the best interest of the city, and not of persons. If some other man was marshal and was treated like Dewey sometimes is, we guarantee right now that what we would say would be good and plenty. What we say is entirely for the public good, regardless of friend or foe, fear or favor, and we expect to continue this course as long as we are at the helm of this paper, and we own it, lock, stock and barrel.

All the best and latest in drinks at Fred Morgan's saloon. Or if you want whiskey, wine or beer for your family or for medicine, the stock is large and you can get what you call for.

Everybody who uses whiskey should use the best. It is not so likely to make you drunk, leaves no bad effect, is better for your health and will make you feel good. You can get it at Fred Morgan's Saloon.

HAYTI FORGING AHEAD.

One of the largest engines the Frisco has ever sent over this road passed through Hayti Saturday, going north. It's number was 1303, and it was pulling 75 cars. This is a good indication, and shows that the road-bed and trackage is being prepared for the very best and fastest service, and the beauty of it is, Hayti is right on the main line and always will be, and no hob-tails can ever be nosing around our doors, as they may in some other towns, according to the predictions of the Argus. Hayti is fortunate in her location and her future is assured, and even her enemies have now simmered down to the three "owners" of the city hall and public square, who could compromise with the city, if one of them would agree to what is RIGHT. Very well; let him go. He will doubtless find that a whole-town can afford to spend about as much money as can three small individuals.

Buying Electric Light Plants.

The St. Louis syndicate which had options on a number of electric light plants in Southeast Missouri, and which recently bought plants in Dexter and Poplar Bluff, and owns one in Cape Girardeau and possibly Sikeston, has closed a deal for the plant of S. E. Missouri Light, Ice & Power Co., in this city.

The money has been paid down we understand and the formal transfer made. It is understood that the syndicate, which is trying to close deals with others in Southeast Missouri, will operate them all from a mammoth central probably near the Thebes bridge and expects to make its profit out of economies of large production and office consolidation.—Charleston Courier.

Mrs. L. Segal and Miss Eva and Ben. Barkovitz of Portageville visited the family of I. Kohn Sunday.

It is always a pleasure to receive a lot of news items from some person who does not take the paper, for then we know that they have good, accommodating neighbors to borrow from, and they get just as much pleasure out of it as if they paid for it.

Aphelia Evangeline, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Adams, born Nov. 14, died Dec. 14. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Ellis at the home of J. D. Adams in Portageville and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery in that city.

A lady received the following reply from a neighbor in answer to a question as to why she allowed her children and her husband to litter up every room in the house. The sentiment will find lodgment in the heart of every home-loving person in the land. "The mark of the little muddy feet upon the floor can be easier removed than the stains where the little feet go into the highways of sin. The prints of the little fingers upon the window panes cannot shut out the sunshine half so much as the shadow that darkens the mother's heart over the one who is but a name in the coming years. And if my John finds home a refuge from care, and his greatest happiness within its four walls, he can put his boots in the rocking chair and hang his coat on the floor any day in the week. And if I stand it, and he enjoys it, I cannot see that it is anybody's business.—Ex.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Jas. Hassler is a renewal subscriber.

John Scott visited his family at Caruthersville Sunday.

W. M. Haws is a new subscriber.

Andy Shaw drove over to Caruthersville Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Popham has been ill of la grippe this week.

D. Galbreath visited his family at Caruthersville Sunday.

Miss Letitia McFarland has placed her name upon our honor roll.

Dr. R. S. Keirseley of Braggadocio was in Hayti a short while Saturday night, having a professional call near town.

The Baptist Ladies Aid gave a bazaar at the city hall Friday and Saturday, and were highly pleased with the results. The sales were quite gratifying, and more in particular the spirit of the people who sought to patronize them.

Pittsburgh Perfect FENCE

Those shrewd farmers who have stretched "Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence on their property APPRECIATE its unequalled strength and durability. They know it successfully withstands the elements, the knocks of planting, cultivating, harvesting, the rough usage given it by horses, cattle and hogs—they SEE it erect, even and firm, as good as new, year in and year out. "Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence owners at all times are reaping the results of highest fence efficiency.

Tough, strong, durable Open Weave wire—like old time iron wire—carefully galvanized with pure zinc, is used exclusively in "Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence. The wires at every contact point are which produces a joint that cannot be slipped, pulled, broken or rusted apart. There is a style and size of "Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence for every FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN or POULTRY purpose
